

STATEMENT MAKERS

'STATEment Makers' is an honor that recognizes the early personal and professional accomplishments and contributions to society of Iowa State University's young alumni. Nominations are sought for 'STATEment Makers' who have made differences in their own lives, the lives of others, their communities, and/or their professions through ambitious efforts that reflect the scholarly, entrepreneurial, or service-oriented spirit of an Iowa State University education. Examples include the creation of a grassroots organization to respond to a community problem, the birth of a thriving small business due to ingenuity acquired at ISU, or the fulfillment of a lifelong dream that resulted from an ISU experience or connection.

Nominations will be accepted within a variety of categories (please see descriptions below). The nominator is asked to select the nomination category that best exemplifies the nominee's accomplishments and to provide a brief description (200 words or less) of why this individual should be recognized. Once nominations are received, nominees will be notified and asked to provide additional information for selection purposes. Up to 32 individuals may be selected annually for this honor.

NOMINATION DEADLINE IS DECEMBER 1, 2009.

REQUIREMENTS AND QUALIFICATIONS (FOR 2010 CONSIDERATION):

- Any ISU graduate under the age of 32 (cannot turn 32, or older, prior to January 1, 2010)
